The Guam Preservation Trust presents its report as a testimony of the diligence and dedication of the Guam Preservation Trust Board of Directors, staff, and the preservation community in accomplishing this year's proposed outcomes and achieving the standards of success expected of the community.

REGIONAL & INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT

The Guam Preservation Trust made strides in developing partnerships with technical and professional resources in the preservation arena. These resources are invaluable and contribute to the capacity building of our community in advancing preservation on Guam.

The following are partners in the region and the nation providing their expertise in preservation:

National Preservation Institute (NPI); Asian and Pacific Islanders Americans for Historical Preservation (APIAHIP); National Trust for Historic Preservation (NTHP); National Park Service (NPS); Association of Preservation Technology International (APT); The Nature Conservancy (TNC); University of Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona, Spain; Museum of National Anthropology, Spain; Friends of the Marianas Trench; Palau Conservation Society; Micronesian Conservation Trust; Conservation Society of Pohnpei; St. Croix Curcian Heritage and Nature Tourism; CNMI Public School System.

The US Dept. of Interior (DOI/TAP) and the Dept. of the Navy have provided funding for preservation programs.

REVENUE & EXPENDITURE

The Guam Preservation Trust receives most of its revenues from the Building Permit Fees administered by the Guam Department of Public Works. Two major Public Law initiatives were enacted to provide much needed funding to ensure that saving places that matter to the people of Guam will continue to tell the full story of Guam's history and people.

Public Law 36-82 signed into law on March 11, 2022 to fund $3.5 million to rehabilitate the FQ Sanchez School in Humatak, Guam; and Public Law 36-107 signed into law on September 12, 2022 to repeal and reenact §76602 of Article 6, Chapter 76, Title 21 of the Guam Code Annotated relative to restoring 100% funding of building permit fees to the Guam Preservation Trust.

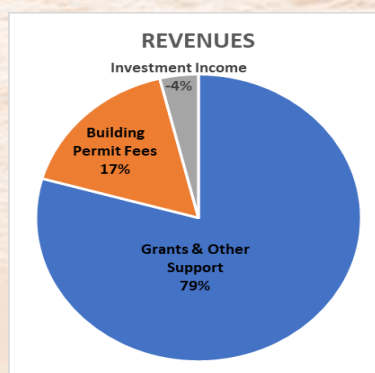

Independent Audit

Independent audits of the Guam Preservation Trust were conducted, resulting in a clean opinion.

The audit was conducted in accordance with auditing standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States (Government Auditing Standards).

Complete financial information can be found at www.guampreservationtrust.org.

WHERE TO FIND GPT IN 2023

F.Q. Sanchez Rehabilitation- With funding secured, GPT will work with our preservation partners to rehabilitate the historic school which was listed as one the 11 Most Endangered Historic Places in the nation by the National Trust for Historic Preservation. We look forward to return this structure to be used as authorized in Public Law 32-011 and by the Humåtak Village Revitalization Plan.

GPT Masterplan 2023-2027- From stakeholder input gathered in FY 2022, GPT was able to complete the discover and dream phases of the Appreciative Inquiry process and design several community based objectives which we invite the community to help us deliver during the next 5 years. Visit www.pacificpreservation.org/2023 for more information.

World Heritage Planning Workshop- With funding from the U.S. Department of Interior Office of Insular Affairs, GPT will continue the progress of working with regional historic preservation officers from the US Insular areas to develop strategies and find opportunities in adding world heritage sites.

The Lanchu Project; I Lanchu: Masasague' I Lina'la' Gi Halom Tano' – Adahi I Manaotao-ta Mo'na (AIMM)- This project will have over 10 lanchu (ranch) stories published in print and online which will include lanchu experiences in Guam and the Northern Mariana Islands.

Atantano Master Plan – GPT anticipates the results of a Plant Inventory and Cultural Resources survey to be completed and used to develop the final Atantano Master Plan which will list compatible uses at GPT's southwestern property. Visit www.atantano.org for more information.

CHALLENGES AHEAD

Public Law 36-107 signed into law on September 12, 2022, reversed GPT's revenue source under Public Law 33-66. While it provides a full restoration of funding, funds are transferred on a quarterly basis and the full effect is expected to be realized towards the latter half of FY 2023 affecting current projects in queue for at least a year.

GPT also faces challenges of securing construction contractors for preservation projects due to limited availability in labor and inflationary costs in materials. With an annual projected budget of $1 billion each year between FY2023-2025 for construction contracts, most of the existing construction companies have committed their labor force for the military buildup leaving a minimal number qualified construction companies available for private, non-military, and preservation projects.
